STARTING RIGHT, NOW -- PROGRAM AGREEMENT -- UNACCOMPANIED YOUTH

This agreement sets out your responsibilities and duties as part of the Mentoring Program (the "Program") offered by Starting Right, Now ("SRN").

1. If selected for the Program, you shall be required to do the following:
 - a. You must commit to participate in the Program for at least 18 months;
 - b. You must be honest with the Mentor assigned to you;
 - c. You must with your mentor in good faith accomplish the goals of the program, including following the reasonable guidance of your mentor;
 - d. You must be on time for school and must not miss school for any reason other than a serious medical reason that can be documented by a physician;
 - e. You must complete all school assignments on time and any late assignments will be considered a breach of this contract;
 - f. You must attend all job interviews scheduled on your behalf and once provided with a job, you must be on time for work and must not miss work for any reason other than a serious medical reason that can be documented by a physician;
 - g. Once a job has been secured, you must open a bank account, checking and savings, with a local financial institution that your mentor approves. You must provide your mentor with an online username and password to be able to view your account on a weekly basis. In addition, if you change either your username or password, you will notify your mentor within 24 hours. In addition, you must deposit all paychecks directly into your bank account with no money withdrawn. If your employer offers direct deposit, you must opt for that option;
 - h. You must work at least 20 hours per week in a locale conducive to your apartment;

- i. Once provided with housing, you must pay all of your rent and utilities prior to spending money on anything else. You are not allowed to pay any bills or purchase anything without permission from your mentor. In addition, no one other than yourself is allowed to live in your home for even one calendar day;
- j. SRN will help you with the deposits necessary to start your housing. After that, you are required to pay all of your rent, based on your income. Individual supplement cases will be examined on an as needed basis.
- k. No luxury items may be purchased until three months of bills are saved in a savings account. And, even then, it must be approved with your mentor;
- l. SRN will have furniture and household items delivered to your home. These items will be inventoried and are owned solely by SRN. You will be given a monthly amount to pay to SRN for use of these items. If your contract is terminated for any reason, SRN has the right to pick up all of the items that it has allowed you to utilize immediately;
- m. You must attend any and all training classes, anger management, or mandatory outings that are required by the Mentor or SRN;
- n. If the Program has a mandatory field trip of any kind, you are required to attend;
- o. You must not commit any crimes. You are not allowed to participate in any illicit activities; including jobs;
- p. You must not use any illegal drugs, and if requested, participate in random drug testing;
- q. You must not use alcohol;
- r. You must not smoke any tobacco products in your home or allow anyone to smoke tobacco products in the home;
- s. You must agree to not sign any contracts or documents without prior consent from your mentor.

2. SRN shall have the right to conduct background searches on you at any time as SRN so desires and you must cooperate with SRN regarding such searches, including fingerprinting.
3. In connection with your involvement in the Program, SRN will incur certain costs and expenses relating to your initial set up for housing. You are required to repay SRN for those costs and expenses. You will be permitted to do this either by payment or through your performance of community service, which must be approved by SRN.
4. Any deposits made on your behalf by SRN, will be returned immediately to SRN when reimbursed to your family.
5. SRN shall have the right to terminate your involvement in the Program at any time without prior notice or without cause. You agree that the decision to terminate your Involvement in the Program is within SRN's sole and absolute discretion. At the time of termination, you will be required to return any items that were given to your family by SRN – i.e. furniture, household items, etc. And, at the time of termination, you will be required to pay back any costs paid on behalf of your family.
6. You agree that in the event SRN provides to you any furniture and other personal property (the "Property") for use while you are participating in the Program, SRN shall retain full ownership of all such property, and that you shall return all Property to SRN immediately upon demand by SRN and in the same condition in which it was provided to you, normal wear and tear excepted. You further agree that you shall not convey possession of the Property to anyone other than SRN and that the Property shall at all times remain in your possession at your residence. In addition, these items will have a monthly charge assessed that you will agree to pay.
7. You must make contact with your mentor everyday either by text, phone call or e-mail. An e-mail account will be set up for you. You must check this account everyday for notifications from our agency. You may not use this account for personal matters. Your mentor will contact you on this e-mail.
